

BLUE GRASS BLADE.

A. T. Parker
East Main St.

EDITED BY A HEATHEN IN THE INTEREST OF GOOD MORALS.

VOLUME XII. NUMBER 50.

LEXINGTON, KENTUCKY, SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 7, E. M. 304.

PUBLISHED WEEKLY; $1.00 A YEAR IN ADVANCE

$1.00 A YEAR.

Charles L. Moore
Editor

TERMS OF THE BLADE.
I issue for one year $1.00.
In clubs of five or more 50 cents each, a year.

Terms—$1.00 per year, in advance;
forever $1.00 per year, $1.50;
one copy one year, $2.50.

Makes all Money Orders, Drafts and Express Orders payable to the Blue Grass Blade, Lexington, Ky.

When you change your address as vise this office giving your old as well as new address.

What you send your subscription say whether you are a new or old sub scriber.

The address slip on the paper will show expiration date and name and serve as proof except as the date changes
as soon as you subscribe.

Subscription to this publication are not ordered by mail at expiration unless the subscriber so directs. The courts invariably hold a subscriber responsible to the publisher for the subscription price of all papers re ceived until the paper is paid for in full up to date and ordered discon tinued.

Office of publication: 161 East Third street, near Walnut.

Entered at the Post Office at Lexing ton, Ky., as Second Class Mail Matter.

Address all communications to
"BLUE GRASS BLADE, P. O. BOX, 393, Lexington, Kentucky.
Fayette Telephone, 619.
Cumberland Telephone, 307.

THE DAMNED STUFF CALLED
ALCOHOL."

I believe that alcohol, to a certain degree, demoralizes those who make it, those who sell it, and those who drink it.

I believe from the time it issues from the still and pollutes every part of the distillery until it comes into the hall of crime, death and dishonor, it demoralizes everybody that touches it.

I do not believe that anybody can contemplate the subject without be coming prejudiced against this liquid crime.

You have to do is to think of the
daths—the suicides, of the insanity, of the poverty, of the ignorance, of the distress of the people, the broken homes, the dead dresses of weeping and despairing wives, asking for bread; of the men of genius it has wrecked; of the millions who have struggled with the devilish serpents produced by this devilish thing.

And when you think of the jails, of the almshouses, of the prisons, and of the scalds upon either bank, I do not wonder that the public opinion is prejudiced against the damned stuff called alcohol.

ROBERT G. INGERSOLL.

"Keep Church and State forever separate"—Grant.

"In no sense whatsoever is this gov ernment founded upon the Christian religion"—Washington.

"The divorce between Church and State should be absolute"—Garfield.

TRIED CHRISTIAN SCIENCE
AND DIED AS RESULT.

Paducah, Ky., Jan. 27.—The first trial in which Christian Science was called into question in the Christian churches and other places now exists.
How was the death of Mrs. Little Porter, who suffered thirteen months from consumption without a doctor, the condition held? How honest is her story? How true? How is she prejudiced against the damned stuff
called alcohol.

He Bought 51 Dog Fennels.

Carlo, Ills., Jan. 11th, 1894.

Dear Sir—Be sure to advise that all books arrive in good shape, rather late, but please all who enjoy good square statement of even religious matters. Yours truly,

C. R. WOODWARD.

APOCRYPHAL NEW TESTAMENT

MAILED TO YOU FOR $1.00, POST AGE PREPAID.

Handsome Old Gold Binding, Splendid Paper, gilt Edge and 21 Full Page Fine Engravings.

CHEAPEST EVER SOLD IN U. S.
New York City, Jan. 18, 1904.

Charles L. Moore,
Editor
Sir—in answer to your postal of January 16th, will say, in reply that the retail price of my "Apocryphal New Testament" is $1.00.

What you on that board make the low price? They can't afford the post age and shipping included.

The India ink is the advance pay ment. Hoping you are well, I remain, Very respectfully,
PETER ECKERL.

This edition of the Apocryphal New Testament is easily worth $1.50.

When I bought one through a Lexington book store, it cost me $1.50. The smallest plain edition costs about $1.00 and I had to wait a long while to get it.
It was probably ordered from Eng land.

But the Blue Grass Blade is work ing for the reputation of being the cheapest Infidel literature in the world, but with them it is not so well as we new publishers.

What you send your subscription say whether you are a new or old sub scriber.

The address slip on the paper will show expiration date and name and
serve as proof except as the date changes
as soon as you subscribe.

Terms—$1.00 per year, in advance;
forever $1.00 per year, $1.50;

Makes all Money Orders, Drafts and Express Orders payable to the Blue Grass Blade, Lexington, Ky.

When you change your address as
vise this office giving your old as well as new address.

What you send your subscription say whether you are a new or old sub scriber.

The address slip on the paper will show expiration date and name and
serve as proof except as the date changes
as soon as you subscribe.

Subscription to this publication are
not ordered by mail at expiration unless
the subscriber so directs. The courts invariably hold a subscriber responsible to the publisher for the
subscription price of all papers re ceived until the paper is paid for in
full up to date and ordered discon tinued.

Office of publication: 161 East Third street, near Walnut.

Entered at the Post Office at Lexing ton, Ky., as Second Class Mail Matter.

Address all communications to
"BLUE GRASS BLADE, P. O. BOX, 393, Lexington, Kentucky.
Fayette Telephone, 619.
Cumberland Telephone, 307.

THE DAMNED STUFF CALLED
ALCOHOL."

I believe that alcohol, to a certain degree, demoralizes those who make it, those who sell it, and those who drink it.

I believe from the time it issues
from the still and pollutes every
part of the distillery until it comes into
the hall of crime, death and dishonor,
it demoralizes everybody that touches it.

I do not believe that anybody can contemplate the subject without be coming prejudiced against this liquid
crime.

You have to do is to think of the
daths—the suicides, of the insanity,
of the poverty, of the ignorance, of
the distress of the people, the broken
homes, the dead dresses of weeping
and despairing wives, asking for
bread; of the men of genius it has
wrecked; of the millions who have
struggled with the devilish serpents produced by this devilish thing.

And when you think of the jails, of
the almshouses, of the prisons, and of
the scalds upon either bank, I do not wonder that the public opinion is prejudiced against the damned stuff
called alcohol.

ROBERT G. INGERSOLL.

"Keep Church and State forever
separate"—Grant.

"In no sense whatsoever is this gov ernment founded upon the Christian religion"—Washington.

"The divorce between Church and State should be absolute"—Garfield.

TRIED CHRISTIAN SCIENCE
AND DIED AS RESULT.

Paducah, Ky., Jan. 27.—The first
trial in which Christian Science was called into question in the Christian churches and other places now exists.
How was the death of Mrs. Little Porter, who suffered thirteen months
from consumption without a doctor,
the condition held? How honest is her story? How true? How
is she prejudiced against the damned stuff
called alcohol.

He Bought 51 Dog Fennels.

Carlo, Ills., Jan. 11th, 1894.

Dear Sir—Be sure to advise that all
books arrive in good shape, rather
late, but please all who enjoy good square statement of even religious matters. Yours truly,

C. R. WOODWARD.

which were the genuine ones, by mak ing the genuine ones rise and go up to the top of the hill highest, accordingly—the genuine ones get on the top of the hill, the common table—when the table was then much longer, it was all the same false ones remained on the floor.

In any event the books that were there were about half of the collection, and they were put together to make what is now called the Canonic New Testa ment used in the Protestant and Catholic churches.

Those books that were then pro
nounced spurious had their friends
and adherents in the small and unpopu
lar sects of the Christians, and were thus preserved, separately, but never put into any
book form. They were collected, col lected, and translated from the Greek
into the English and published in the interest of the Christian reli gion.

Those books that were then pro
nounced spurious had their friends
and adherents in the small and unpopu
lar sects of the Christians, and were thus preserved,
separately, but never put into any
book form. They were collected, col lected, and translated from the Greek
into the English and published in
the interest of the Christian reli
gion.

Those books that were then pro
nounced spurious had their friends
and adherents in the small and unpopu
lar sects of the Christians, and were thus preserved,
separately, but never put into any
book form. They were collected, col lected, and translated from the Greek
into the English and published in
the interest of the Christian reli
gion.

Those books that were then pro
nounced spurious had their friends
and adherents in the small and unpopu
lar sects of the Christians, and were thus preserved,
separately, but never put into any
book form. They were collected, col lected, and translated from the Greek
into the English and published in
the interest of the Christian reli
gion.

Those books that were then pro
nounced spurious had their friends
and adherents in the small and unpopu
lar sects of the Christians, and were thus preserved,
separately, but never put into any
book form. They were collected, col lected, and translated from the Greek
into the English and published in
the interest of the Christian reli
gion.

Those books that were then pro
nounced spurious had their friends
and adherents in the small and unpopu
lar sects of the Christians, and were thus preserved,
separately, but never put into any
book form. They were collected, col lected, and translated from the Greek
into the English and published in
the interest of the Christian reli
gion.

Those books that were then pro
nounced spurious had their friends
and adherents in the small and unpopu
lar sects of the Christians, and were thus preserved,
separately, but never put into any
book form. They were collected, col lected, and translated from the Greek
into the English and published in
the interest of the Christian reli
gion.

Those books that were then pro
nounced spurious had their friends
and adherents in the small and unpopu
lar sects of the Christians, and were thus preserved,
separately, but never put into any
book form. They were collected, col lected, and translated from the Greek
into the English and published in
the interest of the Christian reli
gion.

Those books that were then pro
nounced spurious had their friends
and adherents in the small and unpopu
lar sects of the Christians, and were thus preserved,
separately, but never put into any
book form. They were collected, col lected, and translated from the Greek
into the English and published in
the interest of the Christian reli
gion.

Those books that were then pro
nounced spurious had their friends
and adherents in the small and unpopu
lar sects of the Christians, and were thus preserved,
separately, but never put into any
book form. They were collected, col lected, and translated from the Greek
into the English and published in
the interest of the Christian reli
gion.

Those books that were then pro
nounced spurious had their friends
and adherents in the small and unpopu
lar sects of the Christians, and were thus preserved,
separately, but never put into any
book form. They were collected, col lected, and translated from the Greek
into the English and published in
the interest of the Christian reli
gion.

Those books that were then pro
nounced spurious had their friends
and adherents in the small and unpopu
lar sects of the Christians, and were thus preserved,
separately, but never put into any
book form. They were collected, col lected, and translated from the Greek
into the English and published in
the interest of the Christian reli
gion.

Those books that were then pro
nounced spurious had their friends
and adherents in the small and unpopu
lar sects of the Christians, and were thus preserved,
separately, but never put into any
book form. They were collected, col lected, and translated from the Greek
into the English and published in
the interest of the Christian reli
gion.

Those books that were then pro
nounced spurious had their friends
and adherents in the small and unpopu
lar sects of the Christians, and were thus preserved,
separately, but never put into any
book form. They were collected, col lected, and translated from the Greek
into the English and published in
the interest of the Christian reli
gion.

Those books that were then pro
nounced spurious had their friends
and adherents in the small and unpopu
lar sects of the Christians, and were thus preserved,
separately, but never put into any
book form. They were collected, col lected, and translated from the Greek
into the English and published in
the interest of the Christian reli
gion.

Those books that were then pro
nounced spurious had their friends
and adherents in the small and unpopu
lar sects of the Christians, and were thus preserved,
separately, but never put into any
book form. They were collected, col lected, and translated from the Greek
into the English and published in
the interest of the Christian reli
gion.

Those books that were then pro
nounced spurious had their friends
and adherents in the small and unpopu
lar sects of the Christians, and were thus preserved,
separately, but never put into any
book form. They were collected, col lected, and translated from the Greek
into the English and published in
the interest of the Christian reli
gion.

Those books that were then pro
nounced spurious had their friends
and adherents in the small and unpopu
lar sects of the Christians, and were thus preserved,
separately, but never put into any
book form. They were collected, col lected, and translated from the Greek
into the English and published in
the interest of the Christian reli
gion.

Those books that were then pro
nounced spurious had their friends
and adherents in the small and unpopu
lar sects of the Christians, and were thus preserved,
separately, but never put into any
book form. They were collected, col lected, and translated from the Greek
into the English and published in
the interest of the Christian reli
gion.

Those books that were then pro
nounced spurious had their friends
and adherents in the small and unpopu
lar sects of the Christians, and were thus preserved,
separately, but never put into any
book form. They were collected, col lected, and translated from the Greek
into the English and published in
the interest of the Christian reli
gion.

Those books that were then pro
nounced spurious had their friends
and adherents in the small and unpopu
lar sects of the Christians, and were thus preserved,
separately, but never put into any
book form. They were collected, col lected, and translated from the Greek
into the English and published in
the interest of the Christian reli
gion.

Those books that were then pro
nounced spurious had their friends
and adherents in the small and unpopu
lar sects of the Christians, and were thus preserved,
separately, but never put into any
book form. They were collected, col lected, and translated from the Greek
into the English and published in
the interest of the Christian reli
gion.

Those books that were then pro
nounced spurious had their friends
and adherents in the small and unpopu
lar sects of the Christians, and were thus preserved,
separately, but never put into any
book form. They were collected, col lected, and translated from the Greek
into the English and published in
the interest of the Christian reli
gion.

Those books that were then pro
nounced spurious had their friends
and adherents in the small and unpopu
lar sects of the Christians, and were thus preserved,
separately, but never put into any
book form. They were collected, col lected, and translated from the Greek
into the English and published in
the interest of the Christian reli
gion.

Those books that were then pro
nounced spurious had their friends
and adherents in the small and unpopu
lar sects of the Christians, and were thus preserved,
separately, but never put into any
book form. They were collected, col lected, and translated from the Greek
into the English and published in
the interest of the Christian reli
gion.

Those books that were then pro
nounced spurious had their friends
and adherents in the small and unpopu
lar sects of the Christians, and were thus preserved,
separately, but never put into any
book form. They were collected, col lected, and translated from the Greek
into the English and published in
the interest of the Christian reli
gion.

Those books that were then pro
nounced spurious had their friends
and adherents in the small and unpopu
lar sects of the Christians, and were thus preserved,
separately, but never put into any
book form. They were collected, col lected, and translated from the Greek
into the English and published in
the interest of the Christian reli
gion.

Those books that were then pro
nounced spurious had their friends
and adherents in the small and unpopu
lar sects of the Christians, and were thus preserved,
separately, but never put into any
book form. They were collected, col lected, and translated from the Greek
into the English and published in
the interest of the Christian reli
gion.

Those books that were then pro
nounced spurious had their friends
and adherents in the small and unpopu
lar sects of the Christians, and were thus preserved,
separately, but never put into any
book form. They were collected, col lected, and translated from the Greek
into the English and published in
the interest of the Christian reli
gion.

Those books that were then pro
nounced spurious had their friends
and adherents in the small and unpopu
lar sects of the Christians, and were thus preserved,
separately, but never put into any
book form. They were collected, col lected, and translated from the Greek
into the English and published in
the interest of the Christian reli
gion.

Those books that were then pro
nounced spurious had their friends
and adherents in the small and unpopu
lar sects of the Christians, and were thus preserved,
separately, but never put into any
book form. They were collected, col lected, and translated from the Greek
into the English and published in
the interest of the Christian reli
gion.

Those books that were then pro
nounced spurious had their friends
and adherents in the small and unpopu
lar sects of the Christians, and were thus preserved,
separately, but never put into any
book form. They were collected, col lected, and translated from the Greek
into the English and published in
the interest of the Christian reli
gion.

Those books that were then pro
nounced spurious had their friends
and adherents in the small and unpopu
lar sects of the Christians, and were thus preserved,
separately, but never put into any
book form. They were collected, col lected, and translated from the Greek
into the English and published in
the interest of the Christian reli
gion.

Those books that were then pro
nounced spurious had their friends
and adherents in the small and unpopu
lar sects of the Christians, and were thus preserved,
separately, but never put into any
book form. They were collected, col lected, and translated from the Greek
into the English and published in
the interest of the Christian reli
gion.

Those books that were then pro
nounced spurious had their friends
and adherents in the small and unpopu
lar sects of the Christians, and were thus preserved,
separately, but never put into any
book form. They were collected, col lected, and translated from the Greek
into the English and published in
the interest of the Christian reli
gion.

Those books that were then pro
nounced spurious had their friends
and adherents in the small and unpopu
lar sects of the Christians, and were thus preserved,
separately, but never put into any
book form. They were collected, col lected, and translated from the Greek
into the English and published in
the interest of the Christian reli
gion.

Those books that were then pro
nounced spurious had their friends
and adherents in the small and unpopu
lar sects of the Christians, and were thus preserved,
separately, but never put into any
book form. They were collected, col lected, and translated from the Greek
into the English and published in
the interest of the Christian reli
gion.

Those books that were then pro
nounced spurious had their friends
and adherents in the small and unpopu
lar sects of the Christians, and were thus preserved,
separately, but never put into any
book form. They were collected, col lected, and translated from the Greek
into the English and published in
the interest of the Christian reli
gion.

Those books that were then pro
nounced spurious had their friends
and adherents in the small and unpopu
lar sects of the Christians, and were thus preserved,
separately, but never put into any
book form. They were collected, col lected, and translated from the Greek
into the English and published in
the interest of the Christian reli
gion.

Those books that were then pro
nounced spurious had their friends
and adherents in the small and unpopu
lar sects of the Christians, and were thus preserved,
separately, but never put into any
book form. They were collected, col lected, and translated from the Greek
into the English and published in
the interest of the Christian reli
gion.

Those books that were then pro
nounced spurious had their friends
and adherents in the small and unpopu
lar sects of the Christians, and were thus preserved,
separately, but never put into any
book form. They were collected, col lected, and translated from the Greek
into the English and published in
the interest of the Christian reli
gion.

Those books that were then pro
nounced spurious had their friends
and adherents in the small and unpopu
lar sects of the Christians, and were thus preserved,
separately, but never put into any
book form. They were collected, col lected, and translated from the Greek
into the English and published in
the interest of the Christian reli
gion.

Those books that were then pro
nounced spurious had their friends
and adherents in the small and unpopu
lar sects of the Christians, and were thus preserved,
separately, but never put into any
book form. They were collected, col lected, and translated from the Greek
into the English and published in
the interest of the Christian reli
gion.

Those books that were then pro
nounced spurious had their friends
and adherents in the small and unpopu
lar sects of the Christians, and were thus preserved,
separately, but never put into any
book form. They were collected, col lected, and translated from the Greek
into the English and published in
the interest of the Christian reli
gion.

Those books that were then pro
nounced spurious had their friends
and adherents in the small and unpopu
lar sects of the Christians, and were thus preserved,
separately, but never put into any
book form. They were collected, col lected, and translated from the Greek
into the English and published in
the interest of the Christian reli
gion.

Those books that were then pro
nounced spurious had their friends
and adherents in the small and unpopu
lar sects of the Christians, and were thus preserved,
separately, but never put into any
book form. They were collected, col lected, and translated from the Greek
into the English and published in
the interest of the Christian reli
gion.

Those books that were then pro
nounced spurious had their friends
and adherents in the small and unpopu
lar sects of the Christians, and were thus preserved,
separately, but never put into any
book form. They were collected, col lected, and translated from the Greek
into the English and published in
the interest of the Christian reli
gion.

Those books that were then pro
nounced spurious had their friends
and adherents in the small and unpopu
lar sects of the Christians, and were thus preserved,
separately, but never put into any
book form. They were collected, col lected, and translated from the Greek
into the English and published in
the interest of the Christian reli
gion.

Those books that were then pro
nounced spurious had their friends
and adherents in the small and unpopu
lar sects of the Christians, and were thus preserved,
separately, but never put into any
book form. They were collected, col lected, and translated from the Greek
into the English and published in
the interest of the Christian reli
gion.

Those books that were then pro
nounced spurious had their friends
and adherents in the small and unpopu
lar sects of the Christians, and were thus preserved,
separately, but never put into any
book form. They were collected, col lected, and translated from the Greek
into the English and published in
the interest of the Christian reli
gion.

Those books that were then pro
nounced spurious had their friends
and adherents in the small and unpopu
lar sects of the Christians, and were thus preserved,
separately, but never put into any
book form. They were collected, col lected, and translated from the Greek
into the English and published in
the interest of the Christian reli
gion.

Those books that were then pro
nounced spurious had their friends
and adherents in the small and unpopu
lar sects of the Christians, and were thus preserved,
separately, but never put into any
book form. They were collected, col lected, and translated from the Greek
into the English and published in
the interest of the Christian reli
gion.

Those books that were then pro
nounced spurious had their friends
and adherents in the small and unpopu
lar sects of the Christians, and were thus preserved,
separately, but never put into any
book form. They were collected, col lected, and translated from the Greek
into the English and published in
the interest of the Christian reli
gion.

Those books that were then pro
nounced spurious had their friends
and adherents in the small and unpopu
lar sects of the Christians, and were thus preserved,
separately, but never put into any
book form. They were collected, col lected, and translated from the Greek
into the English and published in
the interest of the Christian reli
gion.

Those books that were then pro
nounced spurious had their friends
and adherents in the small and unpopu
lar sects of the Christians, and were thus preserved,
separately, but never put into any
book form. They were collected, col lected, and translated from the Greek
into the English and published in
the interest of the Christian reli
gion.

Those books that were then pro
nounced spurious had their friends
and adherents in the small and unpopu lar sects of the Christians

(From the Ram's Horn)
WHEN AN ATHEIST ACKNOWLEDGES GOD

Editor the Ram's Horn:

A letter written by Mrs. Mary Benjamin on the death of the noted Infidel Paine, calls my attention to an incident that actually occurred in this vicinity some years ago. The parties hereafter spoken of are well known to the writer.

There lives not more than three miles from us a noted Infidel, who, at one time had a bad sore on one of his limbs. He had employed the services of a medical skill that he could afford, but all to no avail, so he turned to give up in despair some friend told him of an old physician that had recently moved into an adjoining neighborhood who was a specialist on sores of like nature. He decided at once to give him a trial and sent for him to come at an early date and see if anything could be done to relieve, or if possible cure.

The doctor came and after giving a thorough examination, knowing the old man's belief, said to him, "My dear sir, you are a poor soul, but will be obliged to amputate your limb."

The disheartened man said to the doctor, "O, my son, I never can endure that world."

To this the doctor replied with a gentle tap on his shoulder, "My dear Mr. —, I did not know you believed in any God, but the poor man replied, "I tell you, doctor, when you come down to the depth of belief, there is not a man on earth who does not believe in God."

It is a true statement.

A. C. B.

Some one sent me a copy of the Ram's Horn, a religious paper, having on its tab the name Thomas Duerell.

I took a leisure time and read nearly everything in it. The only thing I found that I could not identify with, was the above letter.

If Mrs. Mary Benjamin is going to do anything for that old man, I will have the pleasure of sending fresh air to the death of Tom Paine nearly a hundred years ago.

I would suggest to her for instance the works of Ingersoll or Herbet Spencer, or Leo XIII, where the facts are all fresh in our minds.

While it is true that she has the above mentioned Tom Paine, was a Christian and a model man, we Infidels, for the sake of the argument, will grant all that has ever been said against him, and two times as much more as true.

It is a fact that he never had any children, but that is a grave loss, he has lost his wife, telling his daughter to die in the Christian faith of her mother.

It is a fact that Col. Blackstone started his life, and when he said, recently, in the pulpit, that Ingersoll had succumbed.

The "Ram's Horn" and Sister Benjamin seem to work that lead and give us something fresh, and let up on poor old Tom Paine. "Poor Tom's a cold," and nobody knows what he means.

It is a fact that when he said, recently, in the pulpit, that Ingersoll had succumbed, when he said, recently, in the pulpit, that Ingersoll had succumbed.

The "Ram's Horn" and Sister Benjamin seem to work that lead and give us something fresh, and let up on poor old Tom Paine. "Poor Tom's a cold," and nobody knows what he means.

It is a fact that when this occurs is of December 10, 1869.

It seems to me that I never knew a Christian paper to have a story of this kind that was not a "noted infidel".

We little one-hoss Infidels are hear their notice. They only deal with the noted brand of Infidels.

I have been pretty much with the "noted Infidel" in the United States. As far as I know there is not a "noted Infidel" in America, but not at some time or other or more or less pieces for this paper, but here seems to be a "noted Infidel" paper.

Two additional papers said poor old Tom did.

This note is to call your attention to the very important item as to whether the "noted Infidel" had his leg or arm, whichever it was, cut off, and whether or not he died from the amputation. If he died from the amputation it would be of interest to tell whether or not he recanted and called upon Christ before his death.

Two additional papers said poor old Tom did.

This note is to call your attention to the very important item as to whether the "noted Infidel" had his leg or arm, whichever it was, cut off, and whether or not he died from the amputation. If he died from the amputation it would be of interest to tell whether or not he recanted and called upon Christ before his death.

Two additional papers said poor old Tom did.

This note is to call your attention to the very important item as to whether the "noted Infidel" had his leg or arm, whichever it was, cut off, and whether or not he died from the amputation. If he died from the amputation it would be of interest to tell whether or not he recanted and called upon Christ before his death.

Two additional papers said poor old Tom did.

This note is to call your attention to the very important item as to whether the "noted Infidel" had his leg or arm, whichever it was, cut off, and whether or not he died from the amputation. If he died from the amputation it would be of interest to tell whether or not he recanted and called upon Christ before his death.

Two additional papers said poor old Tom did.

Then when we come to the name of this "noted Infidel" it is simply "Paine" still not clear as to who it is.

A Latin proverb says "Ubi tens medit, dicit alius"—where two physicians you will find two different doctors that are Alibists, but here is a case of a doctor who so far from being an Atheist, next to a physician of the first class, is a man against Atheism, but, prudent by the name of the doctor is not given.

The pious takes pains to say twice limb instead of saying leg or arm, either with a wide smile and more often with a smile than "limb."

I have been a man over three centuries and many would have sold limb in exchange for a soul, but I have been regarded as a fool and unfit for his job; and as such I have been a medical skill that he could afford, but all to no avail, so he turned to give up in despair some friend told him of an old physician that had recently moved into an adjoining neighborhood who was a specialist on sores of like nature.

He decided at once to give him a trial and sent for him to come at an early date and see if anything could be done to relieve, or if possible cure.

The doctor came and after giving a thorough examination, knowing the old man's belief, said to him, "My dear sir, you are a poor soul, but will be obliged to amputate your limb."

The disheartened man said to the doctor, "O, my son, I never can endure that world."

To this the doctor replied with a gentle tap on his shoulder, "My dear Mr. —, I did not know you believed in any God, but the poor man replied, "I tell you, doctor, when you come down to the depth of belief, there is not a man on earth who does not believe in God."

It is a true statement.

A. C. B.

Some one sent me a copy of the Ram's Horn, a religious paper, having on its tab the name Thomas Duerell.

I took a leisure time and read nearly everything in it. The only thing I found that I could not identify with, was the above letter.

If Mrs. Mary Benjamin is going to do anything for that old man, I will have the pleasure of sending fresh air to the death of Tom Paine.

A. C. B.

Some one sent me a copy of the Ram's Horn, a religious paper, having on its tab the name Thomas Duerell.

I took a leisure time and read nearly everything in it. The only thing I found that I could not identify with, was the above letter.

If Mrs. Mary Benjamin is going to do anything for that old man, I will have the pleasure of sending fresh air to the death of Tom Paine.

A. C. B.

Some one sent me a copy of the Ram's Horn, a religious paper, having on its tab the name Thomas Duerell.

I took a leisure time and read nearly everything in it. The only thing I found that I could not identify with, was the above letter.

If Mrs. Mary Benjamin is going to do anything for that old man, I will have the pleasure of sending fresh air to the death of Tom Paine.

A. C. B.

Some one sent me a copy of the Ram's Horn, a religious paper, having on its tab the name Thomas Duerell.

I took a leisure time and read nearly everything in it. The only thing I found that I could not identify with, was the above letter.

If Mrs. Mary Benjamin is going to do anything for that old man, I will have the pleasure of sending fresh air to the death of Tom Paine.

A. C. B.

Some one sent me a copy of the Ram's Horn, a religious paper, having on its tab the name Thomas Duerell.

I took a leisure time and read nearly everything in it. The only thing I found that I could not identify with, was the above letter.

If Mrs. Mary Benjamin is going to do anything for that old man, I will have the pleasure of sending fresh air to the death of Tom Paine.

A. C. B.

LYING TO GOD'S GLORY

To the Editor of 10ne Grass Blade:

Dr. Wilson's recent letter entitled: "Defenders of the Dead," in which he stoutly asserts that pupit Rily (?) Rev Francis Strong, and surrounds him with the doubtful fragrance of falsehoods willful and malicious, comes to every lover of the truth with a spirit of impudent defiance.

The pious takes pains to say twice limb instead of saying leg or arm, either with a wide smile and more often with a smile than "limb."

I have been a man over three centuries and many would have sold limb in exchange for a soul, but I have been regarded as a fool and unfit for his job;

and I have had some limb, but I have been regarded as a fool and unfit for his job;

and I have had some limb, but I have been regarded as a fool and unfit for his job;

and I have had some limb, but I have been regarded as a fool and unfit for his job;

and I have had some limb, but I have been regarded as a fool and unfit for his job;

and I have had some limb, but I have been regarded as a fool and unfit for his job;

and I have had some limb, but I have been regarded as a fool and unfit for his job;

and I have had some limb, but I have been regarded as a fool and unfit for his job;

and I have had some limb, but I have been regarded as a fool and unfit for his job;

and I have had some limb, but I have been regarded as a fool and unfit for his job;

and I have had some limb, but I have been regarded as a fool and unfit for his job;

and I have had some limb, but I have been regarded as a fool and unfit for his job;

and I have had some limb, but I have been regarded as a fool and unfit for his job;

and I have had some limb, but I have been regarded as a fool and unfit for his job;

and I have had some limb, but I have been regarded as a fool and unfit for his job;

and I have had some limb, but I have been regarded as a fool and unfit for his job;

and I have had some limb, but I have been regarded as a fool and unfit for his job;

and I have had some limb, but I have been regarded as a fool and unfit for his job;

and I have had some limb, but I have been regarded as a fool and unfit for his job;

and I have had some limb, but I have been regarded as a fool and unfit for his job;

and I have had some limb, but I have been regarded as a fool and unfit for his job;

and I have had some limb, but I have been regarded as a fool and unfit for his job;

and I have had some limb, but I have been regarded as a fool and unfit for his job;

and I have had some limb, but I have been regarded as a fool and unfit for his job;

and I have had some limb, but I have been regarded as a fool and unfit for his job;

and I have had some limb, but I have been regarded as a fool and unfit for his job;

and I have had some limb, but I have been regarded as a fool and unfit for his job;

and I have had some limb, but I have been regarded as a fool and unfit for his job;

and I have had some limb, but I have been regarded as a fool and unfit for his job;

and I have had some limb, but I have been regarded as a fool and unfit for his job;

and I have had some limb, but I have been regarded as a fool and unfit for his job;

and I have had some limb, but I have been regarded as a fool and unfit for his job;

(From Braun's Iconoclast )
SOME HOT STUFF.

Mrs. Letitia M. Clark of Galesburg, wrote an interesting article for this journal in reply to President Roosevelt's letter on race suicide. The editor of The Patriarch, of Seattle, writes to the author of the letter, "I am sorry to learn that you are a member of the Anti-Saloon League, but I am not surprised at your action. You are a woman of strong character and I am sure that you are doing a great service in your efforts to keep the Anti-Saloon League from doing harm to society."

Mr. W. H. Nichols, of Toledo, Ohio, writes to the author of the letter, "I am sorry to learn that you are a member of the Anti-Saloon League, but I am not surprised at your action. You are a woman of strong character and I am sure that you are doing a great service in your efforts to keep the Anti-Saloon League from doing harm to society."

Mr. W. H. Nichols, of Toledo, Ohio, writes to the author of the letter, "I am sorry to learn that you are a member of the Anti-Saloon League, but I am not surprised at your action. You are a woman of strong character and I am sure that you are doing a great service in your efforts to keep the Anti-Saloon League from doing harm to society."

Mr. W. H. Nichols, of Toledo, Ohio, writes to the author of the letter, "I am sorry to learn that you are a member of the Anti-Saloon League, but I am not surprised at your action. You are a woman of strong character and I am sure that you are doing a great service in your efforts to keep the Anti-Saloon League from doing harm to society."

Mr. W. H. Nichols, of Toledo, Ohio, writes to the author of the letter, "I am sorry to learn that you are a member of the Anti-Saloon League, but I am not surprised at your action. You are a woman of strong character and I am sure that you are doing a great service in your efforts to keep the Anti-Saloon League from doing harm to society."

Mr. W. H. Nichols, of Toledo, Ohio, writes to the author of the letter, "I am sorry to learn that you are a member of the Anti-Saloon League, but I am not surprised at your action. You are a woman of strong character and I am sure that you are doing a great service in your efforts to keep the Anti-Saloon League from doing harm to society."

Mr. W. H. Nichols, of Toledo, Ohio, writes to the author of the letter, "I am sorry to learn that you are a member of the Anti-Saloon League, but I am not surprised at your action. You are a woman of strong character and I am sure that you are doing a great service in your efforts to keep the Anti-Saloon League from doing harm to society."

Mr. W. H. Nichols, of Toledo, Ohio, writes to the author of the letter, "I am sorry to learn that you are a member of the Anti-Saloon League, but I am not surprised at your action. You are a woman of strong character and I am sure that you are doing a great service in your efforts to keep the Anti-Saloon League from doing harm to society."

Mr. W. H. Nichols, of Toledo, Ohio, writes to the author of the letter, "I am sorry to learn that you are a member of the Anti-Saloon League, but I am not surprised at your action. You are a woman of strong character and I am sure that you are doing a great service in your efforts to keep the Anti-Saloon League from doing harm to society."

Mr. W. H. Nichols, of Toledo, Ohio, writes to the author of the letter, "I am sorry to learn that you are a member of the Anti-Saloon League, but I am not surprised at your action. You are a woman of strong character and I am sure that you are doing a great service in your efforts to keep the Anti-Saloon League from doing harm to society."

Mr. W. H. Nichols, of Toledo, Ohio, writes to the author of the letter, "I am sorry to learn that you are a member of the Anti-Saloon League, but I am not surprised at your action. You are a woman of strong character and I am sure that you are doing a great service in your efforts to keep the Anti-Saloon League from doing harm to society."

Mr. W. H. Nichols, of Toledo, Ohio, writes to the author of the letter, "I am sorry to learn that you are a member of the Anti-Saloon League, but I am not surprised at your action. You are a woman of strong character and I am sure that you are doing a great service in your efforts to keep the Anti-Saloon League from doing harm to society."

Mr. W. H. Nichols, of Toledo, Ohio, writes to the author of the letter, "I am sorry to learn that you are a member of the Anti-Saloon League, but I am not surprised at your action. You are a woman of strong character and I am sure that you are doing a great service in your efforts to keep the Anti-Saloon League from doing harm to society."

Mr. W. H. Nichols, of Toledo, Ohio, writes to the author of the letter, "I am sorry to learn that you are a member of the Anti-Saloon League, but I am not surprised at your action. You are a woman of strong character and I am sure that you are doing a great service in your efforts to keep the Anti-Saloon League from doing harm to society."

Mr. W. H. Nichols, of Toledo, Ohio, writes to the author of the letter, "I am sorry to learn that you are a member of the Anti-Saloon League, but I am not surprised at your action. You are a woman of strong character and I am sure that you are doing a great service in your efforts to keep the Anti-Saloon League from doing harm to society."

Mr. W. H. Nichols, of Toledo, Ohio, writes to the author of the letter, "I am sorry to learn that you are a member of the Anti-Saloon League, but I am not surprised at your action. You are a woman of strong character and I am sure that you are doing a great service in your efforts to keep the Anti-Saloon League from doing harm to society."

Mr. W. H. Nichols, of Toledo, Ohio, writes to the author of the letter, "I am sorry to learn that you are a member of the Anti-Saloon League, but I am not surprised at your action. You are a woman of strong character and I am sure that you are doing a great service in your efforts to keep the Anti-Saloon League from doing harm to society."

Mr. W. H. Nichols, of Toledo, Ohio, writes to the author of the letter, "I am sorry to learn that you are a member of the Anti-Saloon League, but I am not surprised at your action. You are a woman of strong character and I am sure that you are doing a great service in your efforts to keep the Anti-Saloon League from doing harm to society."

Mr. W. H. Nichols, of Toledo, Ohio, writes to the author of the letter, "I am sorry to learn that you are a member of the Anti-Saloon League, but I am not surprised at your action. You are a woman of strong character and I am sure that you are doing a great service in your efforts to keep the Anti-Saloon League from doing harm to society."

Mr. W. H. Nichols, of Toledo, Ohio, writes to the author of the letter, "I am sorry to learn that you are a member of the Anti-Saloon League, but I am not surprised at your action. You are a woman of strong character and I am sure that you are doing a great service in your efforts to keep the Anti-Saloon League from doing harm to society."

Mr. W. H. Nichols, of Toledo, Ohio, writes to the author of the letter, "I am sorry to learn that you are a member of the Anti-Saloon League, but I am not surprised at your action. You are a woman of strong character and I am sure that you are doing a great service in your efforts to keep the Anti-Saloon League from doing harm to society."

Mr. W. H. Nichols, of Toledo, Ohio, writes to the author of the letter, "I am sorry to learn that you are a member of the Anti-Saloon League, but I am not surprised at your action. You are a woman of strong character and I am sure that you are doing a great service in your efforts to keep the Anti-Saloon League from doing harm to society."

Mr. W. H. Nichols, of Toledo, Ohio, writes to the author of the letter, "I am sorry to learn that you are a member of the Anti-Saloon League, but I am not surprised at your action. You are a woman of strong character and I am sure that you are doing a great service in your efforts to keep the Anti-Saloon League from doing harm to society."

Mr. W. H. Nichols, of Toledo, Ohio, writes to the author of the letter, "I am sorry to learn that you are a member of the Anti-Saloon League, but I am not surprised at your action. You are a woman of strong character and I am sure that you are doing a great service in your efforts to keep the Anti-Saloon League from doing harm to society."

Mr. W. H. Nichols, of Toledo, Ohio, writes to the author of the letter, "I am sorry to learn that you are a member of the Anti-Saloon League, but I am not surprised at your action. You are a woman of strong character and I am sure that you are doing a great service in your efforts to keep the Anti-Saloon League from doing harm to society."

Mr. W. H. Nichols, of Toledo, Ohio, writes to the author of the letter, "I am sorry to learn that you are a member of the Anti-Saloon League, but I am not surprised at your action. You are a woman of strong character and I am sure that you are doing a great service in your efforts to keep the Anti-Saloon League from doing harm to society."

Mr. W. H. Nichols, of Toledo, Ohio, writes to the author of the letter, "I am sorry to learn that you are a member of the Anti-Saloon League, but I am not surprised at your action. You are a woman of strong character and I am sure that you are doing a great service in your efforts to keep the Anti-Saloon League from doing harm to society."

Mr. W. H. Nichols, of Toledo, Ohio, writes to the author of the letter, "I am sorry to learn that you are a member of the Anti-Saloon League, but I am not surprised at your action. You are a woman of strong character and I am sure that you are doing a great service in your efforts to keep the Anti-Saloon League from doing harm to society."

Mr. W. H. Nichols, of Toledo, Ohio, writes to the author of the letter, "I am sorry to learn that you are a member of the Anti-Saloon League, but I am not surprised at your action. You are a woman of strong character and I am sure that you are doing a great service in your efforts to keep the Anti-Saloon League from doing harm to society."

Mr. W. H. Nichols, of Toledo, Ohio, writes to the author of the letter, "I am sorry to learn that you are a member of the Anti-Saloon League, but I am not surprised at your action. You are a woman of strong character and I am sure that you are doing a great service in your efforts to keep the Anti-Saloon League from doing harm to society."

Mr. W. H. Nichols, of Toledo, Ohio, writes to the author of the letter, "I am sorry to learn that you are a member of the Anti-Saloon League, but I am not surprised at your action. You are a woman of strong character and I am sure that you are doing a great service in your efforts to keep the Anti-Saloon League from doing harm to society."

Mr. W. H. Nichols, of Toledo, Ohio, writes to the author of the letter, "I am sorry to learn that you are a member of the Anti-Saloon League, but I am not surprised at your action. You are a woman of strong character and I am sure that you are doing a great service in your efforts to keep the Anti-Saloon League from doing harm to society."

Mr. W. H. Nichols, of Toledo, Ohio, writes to the author of the letter, "I am sorry to learn that you are a member of the Anti-Saloon League, but I am not surprised at your action. You are a woman of strong character and I am sure that you are doing a great service in your efforts to keep the Anti-Saloon League from doing harm to society."

BACK TO PRISON

The Rev. William E. Hinshaw's Role is Ended.

In Indianapolis, Ind.—The Rev. Wm. E. Hinshaw will arrive in Indianapolis this morning from his mother's home near Winchester on his return to the Michigan City prison. Gov. Durbin has refused the request of his friends to extend his sixty-day parole, and Hinshaw's new week will begin Saturday for the alleged murderer of his wife, Thresa Hinshaw.

The parole was granted by Gov. Durbin, but the Rev. Hinshaw, who always believed in Hinshaw, has been released.

Leave Lexington for Paris early every hour from 6 a.m. to 7 p.m. and at 9 a.m. to 8 p.m. and at 10 p.m. Single fare, 40 cents.

Leave Lexington for Georgetown every hour from 6 a.m. to 1 p.m., 2 p.m. to 3 p.m. and 4 p.m. to 5 p.m. Double fare, 40 cents.

Leave Georgetown for Paris every hour from 6 a.m. to 1 p.m., 2 p.m. to 3 p.m. and 4 p.m. Double fare, 40 cents.

Leave Paris for New Orleans and return.

Leave New Orleans and return

N. L. P.

This Column is Dedicated to the National Liberal Party—Matter Intended for Publication Should Be Addressed to Morris Sache, Secretary, Atlas Bank Building, Cincinnati, Ohio.

he return from Rome.—VIOLA HIGGINS.

New Sharon, low.—When does the Freedmouthe Library Society or Com gross meet in 80 to 81? D. J. W. WDDO.

I will most verily say during the month of August. An executive board will soon take action in this regard. What we now want and want it badly is a large meeting room for holding meetings. We should have a large audience for 80 to 81, and I would like to have a diminutive world next August—that we are strong as outspoken.

Of course, the world will and must prevail in the end. But if only by a majority by far, multitude; but it will take long to convince the world of this great truth if only adventured by few.

While it is a fact that we see almost daily converts to the cause, nevertheless the work goes on slowly.

We need more workers and more members.

Santa Claus is a beauty unshaded in the mind of the people. When the world has seen the beauty of Santa Claus; but this is a secret.

It has been handed into the minds of the young men and young women, but it is not true that it takes more than a year to make more emulators than the older minded.

Bog pardon! I am not so good at this lecture. What I want to say is that we need more workers for the National Liberal Party.

Granford, Ill.—Please put me down as one of Wilson's books as I am sure that Wilson is well qualified for such work. I hope with deepest interest in the life of Wilson, I have had to that monument and also to D. M. Bennett's monument and his trip around the world, I think it a great thing to expose the differences in all the countries, and especially the Catholic church. Having been in the Freedmouthe ranks for twenty-five years I am a terror to Christians here. I wish Wilson and our cause a grand success.—OTIS WHITE.

Oleta Okla.—Put me down for one of Dr. Wilson's books. I have not the money now, but I will when I can. I want to help push the good work along, and tell the Doctor if he publishes a book on Christian worship I want one.—J. PHILIP WHITT.

Shelton, Wash.—I have delayed writing to you as I wanted to send my dues to the N. L. P. and for one of Wilson's books if he goes to print. If we go to Rome, and also a dollar or two for Dr. Baden, and a dollar or two more if possible, but will send it as soon as I can. Sincerely hoping that the Blide will live I am yours respectfully.—JOHN O. NELSON.

Carlisle, Ark.—I herewith send you $2—one for the N. L. P. and one for Dr. Wilson's presentive treatise tour to Rome.—THOMAS ELIAS.

Sidney, Colo.—Enclose one dollar for Dr. Wilson's book as I am sure that Wilson is well qualified for such work. I hope with deepest interest in the life of Wilson, I have had to that monument and also to D. M. Bennett's monument and his trip around the world, I think it a great thing to expose the differences in all the countries, and especially the Catholic church. Having been in the Freedmouthe ranks for twenty-five years I am a terror to Christians here. I wish Wilson and our cause a grand success.—OTIS WHITE.

I very much enjoyed reading Bro. Moore's piece about the B. & O. Hall road accident. The logic was good, the diction spicy and the conclusions convincing.

Our friend W. H. Kerr, editor and publisher of "The Christian Educator and God's Defense," has agreed to give us the use of his name and signature of his editorship paper. I believe Bro. Kerr wants only 25 cents a year for his publication and it is well worth the money. His address is Great Bend, Kansas.

Speaking about the recent theater accident in the metropolis of Illinois, Bro. Kerr deserves a hearty round of applause. I believe he is right. He told us that he had been somewhat improved by the rational thought that he could have prevented it, or had he not done so easily how easily he could have done so much worse. Very truly yours,

MARY ABHOTTT HEDYHAM.
P. S.—My brother is not the first to feel that in case that should be condemned by mass meetings of the mourners, it is a public enemy and should be stopped.

M. A. H.

The clipping about Sandford, found in the Chicago Tribune, is as follows:

SANDFORD UP FOR MURSLAUGHTER
Male Chilcott First and One of Them Died.

Auburn, Me.—Jan. 23.—The Rev. Frank W. Sandford, founder and head of the Holy Ghost and Holy Name Society, who was indicted for murder by the Androscoggin county grand jury, was later arrested by Sheriff Cummings and ordered to jail by Sheriff Franklin. He was held without bail for his appearance before the Supreme Court.

The indictment against the Rev. Mr. Sandford charged him with the crime of alleged cruelty to children. All of the charges resulted from the alleged severe discipline in the Shiloh school.

Sandford took his arrest very coolly and readily consented to a noon-day hearing in the Criminal Court. He was held without bail for his appearance before the Supreme Court.

The indictment against the Rev. Mr. Sandford charged him with the crime of alleged cruelty to children. All of the charges resulted from the alleged severe discipline in the Shiloh school.

If any body of Anarchists have assembled to celebrate the birthday of Tom Paine it ought to be received by every man and woman in the whole world who is loyal to the memory of him.

The three men who far more than any other that I have ever heard of have had an affliction by fire that has shocked the world even more than the fire that once destroyed their home, are the three men who are body of Anarchists are assembled in Chicago, to transact their business that whole city should be aroused to capture them and bring them to justice.

If any body of Anarchists have assembled to celebrate the birthday of Tom Paine it ought to be received by every man and woman in the memory of him.

The three men who far more than any other that I have ever heard of have had an affliction by fire that has shocked the world even more than the fire that once destroyed their home, are the three men who are body of Anarchists are assembled in Chicago, to transact their business that whole city should be aroused to capture them and bring them to justice.

If any body of Anarchists have assembled to celebrate the birthday of Tom Paine it ought to be received by every man and woman in the memory of him.

The three men who far more than any other that I have ever heard of have had an affliction by fire that has shocked the world even more than the fire that once destroyed their home, are the three men who are body of Anarchists are assembled in Chicago, to transact their business that whole city should be aroused to capture them and bring them to justice.

If any body of Anarchists have assembled to celebrate the birthday of Tom Paine it ought to be received by every man and woman in the memory of him.

The three men who far more than any other that I have ever heard of have had an affliction by fire that has shocked the world even more than the fire that once destroyed their home, are the three men who are body of Anarchists are assembled in Chicago, to transact their business that whole city should be aroused to capture them and bring them to justice.

If any body of Anarchists have assembled to celebrate the birthday of Tom Paine it ought to be received by every man and woman in the memory of him.

The three men who far more than any other that I have ever heard of have had an affliction by fire that has shocked the world even more than the fire that once destroyed their home, are the three men who are body of Anarchists are assembled in Chicago, to transact their business that whole city should be aroused to capture them and bring them to justice.

If any body of Anarchists have assembled to celebrate the birthday of Tom Paine it ought to be received by every man and woman in the memory of him.

The three men who far more than any other that I have ever heard of have had an affliction by fire that has shocked the world even more than the fire that once destroyed their home, are the three men who are body of Anarchists are assembled in Chicago, to transact their business that whole city should be aroused to capture them and bring them to justice.

If any body of Anarchists have assembled to celebrate the birthday of Tom Paine it ought to be received by every man and woman in the memory of him.

The three men who far more than any other that I have ever heard of have had an affliction by fire that has shocked the world even more than the fire that once destroyed their home, are the three men who are body of Anarchists are assembled in Chicago, to transact their business that whole city should be aroused to capture them and bring them to justice.

If any body of Anarchists have assembled to celebrate the birthday of Tom Paine it ought to be received by every man and woman in the memory of him.

The three men who far more than any other that I have ever heard of have had an affliction by fire that has shocked the world even more than the fire that once destroyed their home, are the three men who are body of Anarchists are assembled in Chicago, to transact their business that whole city should be aroused to capture them and bring them to justice.

If any body of Anarchists have assembled to celebrate the birthday of Tom Paine it ought to be received by every man and woman in the memory of him.

The three men who far more than any other that I have ever heard of have had an affliction by fire that has shocked the world even more than the fire that once destroyed their home, are the three men who are body of Anarchists are assembled in Chicago, to transact their business that whole city should be aroused to capture them and bring them to justice.

If any body of Anarchists have assembled to celebrate the birthday of Tom Paine it ought to be received by every man and woman in the memory of him.

The three men who far more than any other that I have ever heard of have had an affliction by fire that has shocked the world even more than the fire that once destroyed their home, are the three men who are body of Anarchists are assembled in Chicago, to transact their business that whole city should be aroused to capture them and bring them to justice.

If any body of Anarchists have assembled to celebrate the birthday of Tom Paine it ought to be received by every man and woman in the memory of him.

The three men who far more than any other that I have ever heard of have had an affliction by fire that has shocked the world even more than the fire that once destroyed their home, are the three men who are body of Anarchists are assembled in Chicago, to transact their business that whole city should be aroused to capture them and bring them to justice.

If any body of Anarchists have assembled to celebrate the birthday of Tom Paine it ought to be received by every man and woman in the memory of him.

The three men who far more than any other that I have ever heard of have had an affliction by fire that has shocked the world even more than the fire that once destroyed their home, are the three men who are body of Anarchists are assembled in Chicago, to transact their business that whole city should be aroused to capture them and bring them to justice.

If any body of Anarchists have assembled to celebrate the birthday of Tom Paine it ought to be received by every man and woman in the memory of him.

The three men who far more than any other that I have ever heard of have had an affliction by fire that has shocked the world even more than the fire that once destroyed their home, are the three men who are body of Anarchists are assembled in Chicago, to transact their business that whole city should be aroused to capture them and bring them to justice.

If any body of Anarchists have assembled to celebrate the birthday of Tom Paine it ought to be received by every man and woman in the memory of him.

The three men who far more than any other that I have ever heard of have had an affliction by fire that has shocked the world even more than the fire that once destroyed their home, are the three men who are body of Anarchists are assembled in Chicago, to transact their business that whole city should be aroused to capture them and bring them to justice.

If any body of Anarchists have assembled to celebrate the birthday of Tom Paine it ought to be received by every man and woman in the memory of him.

The three men who far more than any other that I have ever heard of have had an affliction by fire that has shocked the world even more than the fire that once destroyed their home, are the three men who are body of Anarchists are assembled in Chicago, to transact their business that whole city should be aroused to capture them and bring them to justice.

If any body of Anarchists have assembled to celebrate the birthday of Tom Paine it ought to be received by every man and woman in the memory of him.

The three men who far more than any other that I have ever heard of have had an affliction by fire that has shocked the world even more than the fire that once destroyed their home, are the three men who are body of Anarchists are assembled in Chicago, to transact their business that whole city should be aroused to capture them and bring them to justice.

If any body of Anarchists have assembled to celebrate the birthday of Tom Paine it ought to be received by every man and woman in the memory of him.

The three men who far more than any other that I have ever heard of have had an affliction by fire that has shocked the world even more than the fire that once destroyed their home, are the three men who are body of Anarchists are assembled in Chicago, to transact their business that whole city should be aroused to capture them and bring them to justice.

If any body of Anarchists have assembled to celebrate the birthday of Tom Paine it ought to be received by every man and woman in the memory of him.

The three men who far more than any other that I have ever heard of have had an affliction by fire that has shocked the world even more than the fire that once destroyed their home, are the three men who are body of Anarchists are assembled in Chicago, to transact their business that whole city should be aroused to capture them and bring them to justice.

If any body of Anarchists have assembled to celebrate the birthday of Tom Paine it ought to be received by every man and woman in the memory of him.

The three men who far more than any other that I have ever heard of have had an affliction by fire that has shocked the world even more than the fire that once destroyed their home, are the three men who are body of Anarchists are assembled in Chicago, to transact their business that whole city should be aroused to capture them and bring them to justice.

If any body of Anarchists have assembled to celebrate the birthday of Tom Paine it ought to be received by every man and woman in the memory of him.

The three men who far more than any other that I have ever heard of have had an affliction by fire that has shocked the world even more than the fire that once destroyed their home, are the three men who are body of Anarchists are assembled in Chicago, to transact their business that whole city should be aroused to capture them and bring them to justice.

If any body of Anarchists have assembled to celebrate the birthday of Tom Paine it ought to be received by every man and woman in the memory of him.

The three men who far more than any other that I have ever heard of have had an affliction by fire that has shocked the world even more than the fire that once destroyed their home, are the three men who are body of Anarchists are assembled in Chicago, to transact their business that whole city should be aroused to capture them and bring them to justice.

If any body of Anarchists have assembled to celebrate the birthday of Tom Paine it ought to be received by every man and woman in the memory of him.

The three men who far more than any other that I have ever heard of have had an affliction by fire that has shocked the world even more than the fire that once destroyed their home, are the three men who are body of Anarchists are assembled in Chicago, to transact their business that whole city should be aroused to capture them and bring them to justice.

If any body of Anarchists have assembled to celebrate the birthday of Tom Paine it ought to be received by every man and woman in the memory of him.

The three men who far more than any other that I have ever heard of have had an affliction by fire that has shocked the world even more than the fire that once destroyed their home, are the three men who are body of Anarchists are assembled in Chicago, to transact their business that whole city should be aroused to capture them and bring them to justice.

If any body of Anarchists have assembled to celebrate the birthday of Tom Paine it ought to be received by every man and woman in the memory of him.

The three men who far more than any other that I have ever heard of have had an affliction by fire that has shocked the world even more than the fire that once destroyed their home, are the three men who are body of Anarchists are assembled in Chicago, to transact their business that whole city should be aroused to capture them and bring them to justice.

If any body of Anarchists have assembled to celebrate the birthday of Tom Paine it ought to be received by every man and woman in the memory of him.

The three men who far more than any other that I have ever heard of have had an affliction by fire that has shocked the world even more than the fire that once destroyed their home, are the three men who are body of Anarchists are assembled in Chicago, to transact their business that whole city should be aroused to capture them and bring them to justice.

If any body of Anarchists have assembled to celebrate the birthday of Tom Paine it ought to be received by every man and woman in the memory of him.

The three men who far more than any other that I have ever heard of have had an affliction by fire that has shocked the world even more than the fire that once destroyed their home, are the three men who are body of Anarchists are assembled in Chicago, to transact their business that whole city should be aroused to capture them and bring them to justice.

If any body of Anarchists have assembled to celebrate the birthday of Tom Paine it ought to be received by every man and woman in the memory of him.

The three men who far more than any other that I have ever heard of have had an affliction by fire that has shocked the world even more than the fire that once destroyed their home, are the three men who are body of Anarchists are assembled in Chicago, to transact their business that whole city should be aroused to capture them and bring them to justice.

If any body of Anarchists have assembled to celebrate the birthday of Tom Paine it ought to be received by every man and woman in the memory of him.

The three men who far more than any other that I have ever heard of have had an affliction by fire that has shocked the world even more than the fire that once destroyed their home, are the three men who are body of Anarchists are assembled in Chicago, to transact their business that whole city should be aroused to capture them and bring them to justice.

If any body of Anarchists have assembled to celebrate the birthday of Tom Paine it ought to be received by every man and woman in the memory of him.

The three men who far more than any other that I have ever heard of have had an affliction by fire that has shocked the world even more than the fire that once destroyed their home, are the three men who are body of Anarchists are assembled in Chicago, to transact their business that whole city should be aroused to capture them and bring them to justice.

If any body of Anarchists have assembled to celebrate the birthday of Tom Paine it ought to be received by every man and woman in the memory of him.

The three men who far more than any other that I have ever heard of have had an affliction by fire that has shocked the world even more than the fire that once destroyed their home, are the three men who are body of Anarchists are assembled in Chicago, to transact their business that whole city should be aroused to capture them and bring them to justice.

If any body of Anarchists have assembled to celebrate the birthday of Tom Paine it ought to be received by every man and woman in the memory of him.

The three men who far more than any other that I have ever heard of have had an affliction by fire that has shocked the world even more than the fire that once destroyed their home, are the three men who are body of Anarchists are assembled in Chicago, to transact their business that whole city should be aroused to capture them and bring them to justice.

If any body of Anarchists have assembled to celebrate the birthday of Tom Paine it ought to be received by every man and woman in the memory of him.

The three men who far more than any other that I have ever heard of have had an affliction by fire that has shocked the world even more than the fire that once destroyed their home, are the three men who are body of Anarchists are assembled in Chicago, to transact their business that whole city should be aroused to capture them and bring them to justice.

If any body of Anarchists have assembled to celebrate the birthday of Tom Paine it ought to be received by every man and woman in the memory of him.

The three men who far more than any other that I have ever heard of have had an affliction by fire that has shocked the world even more than the fire that once destroyed their home, are the three men who are body of Anarchists are assembled in Chicago, to transact their business that whole city should be aroused to capture them and bring them to justice.

If any body of Anarchists have assembled to celebrate the birthday of Tom Paine it ought to be received by every man and woman in the memory of him.

The three men who far more than any other that I have ever heard of have had an affliction by fire that has shocked the world even more than the fire that once destroyed their home, are the three men who are body of Anarchists are assembled in Chicago, to transact their business that whole city should be aroused to capture them and bring them to justice.

If any body of Anarchists have assembled to celebrate the birthday of Tom Paine it ought to be received by every man and woman in the memory of him.

The three men who far more than any other that I have ever heard of have had an affliction by fire that has shocked the world even more than the fire that once destroyed their home, are the three men who are body of Anarchists are assembled in Chicago, to transact their business that whole city should be aroused to capture them and bring them to justice.

If any body of Anarchists have assembled to celebrate the birthday of Tom Paine it ought to be received by every man and woman in the memory of him.

The three men who far more than any other that I have ever heard of have had an affliction by fire that has shocked the world even more than the fire that once destroyed their home, are the three men who are body of Anarchists are assembled in Chicago, to transact their business that whole city should be aroused to capture them and bring them to justice.

If any body of Anarchists have assembled to celebrate the birthday of Tom Paine it ought to be received by every man and woman in the memory of him.

The three men who far more than any other that I have ever heard of have had an affliction by fire that has shocked the world even more than the fire that once destroyed their home, are the three men who are body of Anarchists are assembled in Chicago, to transact their business that whole city should be aroused to capture them and bring them to justice.

If any body of Anarchists have assembled to celebrate the birthday of Tom Paine it ought to be received by every man and woman in the memory of him.

The three men who far more than any other that I have ever heard of have had an affliction by fire that has shocked the world even more than the fire that once destroyed their home, are the three men who are body of Anarchists are assembled in Chicago, to transact their business that whole city should be aroused to capture them and bring them to justice.

If any body of Anarchists have assembled to celebrate the birthday of Tom Paine it ought to be received by every man and woman in the memory of him.

The three men who far more than any other that I have ever heard of have had an affliction by fire that has shocked the world even more than the fire that once destroyed their home, are the three men who are body of Anarchists are assembled in Chicago, to transact their business that whole city should be aroused to capture them and bring them to justice.

If any body of Anarchists have assembled to celebrate the birthday of Tom Paine it ought to be received by every man and woman in the mem-

